

Mr. Chapman

Much power if made use of. Strong feelings.
If she applies to music she will excel. Much firmness & strong sense of justice conscious of her own powers. attachments & affections strong. moved by the illness or sufferings of others ready to assist them to her own disadvantage. great deal of poetry. Travelling pleasing. Passions strong not to meet & struggle thro difficulties. If thrown upon her own resources nothing will seem difficult to her great powers of imitation powerful organization for the drama, either tragedy or comedy.

would mingle anecdote or wit in her conversation much confidence & power in the use and method of speech. Firm & determined wants attention to little things. Looks more to general effect. views things on a grand scale. order good. Demeanor large.
Causality very large.

Strong determinations & would exert in whatever she undertakes either music, languages or drawing.

Very powerful Organization indeed for a female.
More like that of a male than a female. Mathematics &

Love of approbation and distinction, her wish to do good, will be troublesome to her

Mrs. Chapman.

De Villiers. Strand

London.

5 shillings each

Ms. A. 9. 2. 5. 3c